

St Saviour's Weekly Update

Friday 25th October 2024

Dear St Saviour's Families,

Yesterday's Harvest Service at church was a really lovely way to end the term - thank you to everyone who joined us and everyone who donated to our collection for The Passage.

Diwali Dance

We were so happy to welcome Mohit back this week! He led Bollywood dance workshops for all the classes which were fantastic! Have a look at Instagram for some pictures.

St Saviour's at the RSA

Noah E's painting was selected in a recent art competition and is currently on display at The Royal Society of Arts until 31st October. Congratulations! You can pop along to visit it as well as other pieces of work by students from across Westminster. Just let reception know you are there to view the student artwork. The artwork is displayed all around the house, so enjoy the tour! Address: 8 John Adam St, London WC2N 6EZ

Teacher Angel

Mrs Deutrom is the Teacher Angel this week. She is great at helping in lessons and with the children's learning. She always has a smile on her face and greets the children each morning. She is brilliant at helping the children to read and revise their phonics sounds. She helps get lessons ready for the children and loves sticking things in their books! Thank you Mrs Deutrom!

School Lunch Tasting Session

I have arranged a 'tasting afternoon' with our school meals provider, Stir. Parents will be able to come in and try samples of some of the food, as well as talking to representatives from Stir about food allergies or any other questions you have about the menu. This will be on Thursday 28th November at 3pm.

Have a wonderful half term break!
